KENTUCKY SEASON AT END

LATONIA MEETING BROUGHT TO CLOSE IN PRESENCE OF ROUSING CROWD.

Old Rosebud Scores an Easy Victory in the Cincinnati Trophy and Will Be Taken East in Search of Further Laurels.

Cincinnati, O., July 5.—Kentucky's spring and summer season of racing terminated at Latonia this afternoon with the running of the seventh race, in which Sleeth was returned the winner. The windup was brilliant and in keeping with the prosperity that has featured the sport at all the tracks in this state since its inauguration at Leington this suring.

perity that has featured the sport at all the tracks in this state since its inauguration at Leington this spring.

An immeuse gathering, almost as large as that which witnessed the sport yesterday, braved the intense heat to be on hand for the concluding day's racing, which was featured by the valuable and highly prized Cincinnati Trophy, for two-year-olds, the winner of which is usually considered as being the western champion. It brought out among the starters the crack Old Rosebud and there was no question after the running of the race as to his right to the title of champion, for he went about his task in striking fashion and disposed of his opposition in the easiest kind of fashion. He conceded them much weight and won by as much margin as his ridder elected. "He is a freak," is how one astate horseman characterized Old Rosebud, and it fits him well, for he disposes of his opponents in the same convincing fashion right along. In today's race Pebeco, O'Hagan and Harry L, were his opponents for the rich prize of $4,720 and a massive silver cup that went to the winner. He flashed into the lead at the release of the barrier and, running the first half mile in better than :47, had the others groggy. Cantering out the next quarter, he went on to win in 1:12%, cased up, Pebeco closed a big gap to take second place and O'Hagan beat Harry L, a short margin for third money. After the finish jockey McCabe was presented with $500 by Messix, Applegate and Weir, owners of the colt, as a reward for his successful handling of the gelding.

The betting was of better volume than last year and interest in the sport was keener. The attendance throughout the meeting held up wonderfully well, considering the intense heat of the past ten days. The management showed liberality and the horsemen shared bountfully in the prosperity. The sport has been wholesome as a rule, with the racing clean and devoid of scandal.

The exodus of horsemen will begin in carnest tomorrow, when a big delegation will leave for Saratoga to rest until the opening of racing at that track. The Windsor aggregation will depart leisurely during the next week. There has been a change in the horsemen's attitude towards the Porter, Ind., meeting and today many decided to ship their strings there. Among those who announced an intention of departing for the Indiana track tonight and tomorrow are the following horsemen: Dwyer Bros., J. F. Newman & Sons, Hickey & Cloher, A. D. Steele, J. O. & G. H. Keene, I. B. Fitzgerald, J. K. Allen, L. C. Shobe, J. H. Mead, Al Luzader and R. L. Rogers, It is likely that the others will join in the shipment and the consignment from her probably will reach

It was announced today that all the stakes to be run at the different Kentucky courses next fall will close on August 6.

General Manager John Hachmeister expressed great pleasure over the successful season of racing that Latonia enjoyed and contemplates several big features for the Fall season. He will sojourn with Judge Charles F. Price during the next week at French Lick Springs, leaving the finished touches connected with this meeting to his assistant, Frank J. Bruen.

Jockeys W. Andress, Taplin and B. Steele will leave tomorrow for Porter.
Old Rosebud and the remainder of the borses in F. D. Weir's consignment will be shipped Monday to Saratoga. It is the general belief among owners here that the crack colt will not encounter serious opposition in the east.
The backers of favorites today experienced one of the most disastrous sessions of the present meeting.

W. J., Young, who has Ruffles, Dr. Samuel, Manager Mack and other performers in his stable, will probably take several of his string to Saratoga to race during the coming summer meeting there, but the bulk of his stable will be shipped to Lexington to rest until fall racing begins. If he takes any of his string to Saratoga he will make no attempt to take up any yearlings at Lexington until he returns there at the close of the racing season at Saratoga. He has not secured any yearlings as yet, but is on the lookout to add some to his stable.

Fletcher Driver has two fine yearlings this season. One is a bay colt by Magee—Floreal, by Alloway, and the other is a chestunt colt by the Futurity winner, Electioneer, out of Any Day, the dam of Floreal and Floral Day, and a sister to the great horse taiman, which raced brilliantly in England and South Africa. Floreal, the dam of the colt by Magee, was a Kentucky Oaks winner. She has been nated with Handsel after being barren this year. Driver has a fine sucking chestnut colt out of Any Day, by Magee, which sire is making a great showing this year, he having two Derby winners to his credit in Donerall and Horron.

MISTAKES WILL HAPPEN.

R. P. Dodson writes Daily Racing Form that the two-year-old filly. Please Welles, was recently bred to Ivan the Terrible by mistake. On June 7, George to Ivan the Terrible by mistake. On June 7, George Welles from Louisville to him at Columbia, Tenn.. to be turned out, she having been fired. At the same time J. F. Gaffney shipped a mare to Gallatin to be mated with Ivan the Terrible. Please Welles was shipped to Gallatin and bred before Mr. Dodson could locate her, while Mr. Dodson received the Gaffney mare. Moore Johnson will race Please Welles after her let-up if it turns out that she is not in foal.

STAKE FOR THOMAS FORTUNE RYAN.

Stake and Cap Carries Virginian's Colors to Victory in the Keene Memorial.

New York, July 5.—Although a terrific storm broke over the city just about the time race-goers were thinking of making the trip to the track, a surprisingly large crowd was at Belmont Park for the last day of racing under the auspices of the Westchester Racing Association. The track was hardly affected and good time was made throughout the day. Small fields faced the starter in all but the opening card. Good sport resulted although the favorites and second choices were bowled over in most of the races.

Stake and Can was victorious in the running of though the favorites and second choices were bowled over in most of the races.

Stake and Cap was victorious in the running of the Keene Memorial Stakes for 2-year-olds. It was the first win of the meeting for Thomas Fortune Ryan. The race, named in memory of the late James R. Keene, was worth $3.175 net to the winner. Those who noticed Stake and Cap's good race of a few days ago in almost the same company, profited handsomely. Stake and Cap was away poorly, as was Gainer, the one that fought it out with Stake and Cap at the end, Mater and Golden Chimes raced like a team to the head of the stretch, where Executor took up the running and held the lead until the last furlong. Then Gainer took command, but he was quickly followed by Stake and Cap and the two fought it out to the finish. Wilson did not ride a particularly strong finish on Gainer and Stake and Cap was able to pass him and won by half a length. Punch Bowi, the favorite, ran a most disappointing race, which may have been due to the weight he carried and the condition of the track, as he ran third to the stretch and then fell back.

Perthshire won the Harlem Stakes from the favorite, Donald Macdonald, while the Hunters' Steeplechase went to the favorite Rock Abbey.

Andrew Miller won his first purse of the season with Anytime in the closing race, Uncle Mun, which cost H. C. Hallenbeck $3,300 at the Kohler sale, ran second, while Tranid, which went for $5,700 at the same sale, was a poor third. Tranid ran in the colors of Schuyler L. # GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., July 5.—The two-year-old fillies Olympia and Fair Blonde, and the four-year-old filly Toggery, belonging to August Belmont, were shipped from New York this week and turned out at Nursery Stud.

L. Weisberg, of Porto Rico, this week purchased from A. J. Gorcy the nine-year-old stallion, Old Honesty, by Previous, dam Mamie Doyle, by Sir Dixon, and the horse will shortly be sent to his new home.

Maj. Thomas J. Carson has decided to sell twelve yearlings from his Dixlana Farm at Saratoga during the coming meeting and John Miller is making preparations to take them thither. Insofar as has been made known, these are the only yearlings to go from here to be auctioned at the Spa. The inclination generally seems to be to sell at home during the fall meeting of the Kentucky Association, which will open September 11. The Kentucky Sales Company is now organizing a sale to be held at that time.

BETTER FIELDS FOR MINERAL SPRINGS.

Horses on Way from Kentucky to Engage in Racing -Yesterday's Patronage Disappointing.

Saturday's attendance at Mineral Springs was not as numerous as the track folks hoped for. It was better than on the opening day but not so good as that of Friday. Still it was all that could reasonably have been expected in view of the scanty fields of low class racers presented. An important amendment is promised forthwith in the way of a big contingent of horses from Latonia, some of which were entered by telegraph from there for Monday's races. These will be sufficient to double the number of horses at the track and will enable the Mineral Springs officials to present, fairly attractive cards featured by recognized good race horses. With some more to come from Canada the meeting will now do well in the way of horses to furnish good racing.

A heavy rainstorm, accompanied by a bombardment of hail, struck the track about 3 a. m. and it was "spotty" while the racing was in progress. But it needed the wetting down badly and was improved by it. The sixth race as originally closed was declared off because of scratching away from Higher Up, but under amended conditions the same four horses were entered again, with Higher Up carrying 120 pounds instead of 108, as in the race declared off. Then they beat her. The races were usually well contested. The finish of the second race between Ivan Gardner, Tempest and Miss Barn Harbor being particularly close and exciting. Tempest was a 1 to 3 favorite.

It was posted on the bulletin board that hereafter ladies will be admitted free of charge on Mondays and Fridays.

Cream of Horses in Training Named to Start in Stakes at That Track.

With a skillful judgment of weights, the Frontier Hamileap should result in the most remarkable contest in the history of the stake and a new Windsor record for a mile and an eighth.

A program of seven races, including the stake, will be served up to the patrons of the Windsor track on the opening day. The purse distribution will aggregate exactly $7,100, the largest amount ever offered on a single day for seven races at the Windsor track. In fact, the purse display each day during the meeting will hearly reach the $7,000 mark. No overnight handicap or purse offered is for less than $500, while the majority call for $600 and $700 each. No stake will be worth less than $1,500, so that the horsemen will be afforded an increase all the way around across the river this year.

The stake feature of the second day of the meeting, July 17, will be the Edenwold for two-year-olds, at five-eighths of a mile. Sons and daughters of Voter, Martinet, Plaudit, Star Shoot, Ornament Ivan the Terrible, Yankee, Uncle, Lord Esterling, Ildrim, The Commoner, Mexican, Glorifier, Ben Brush, Cesarion, Hamburg, Broomstick and Ogden, maye be found in the list. In addition to the stake there will go to the owner of the winner of the Edenwold, a piece of valuable silver plate, the gift of Walter O. Parmer, master of the breeding farm after which the fixture was named. The third stake of the Windsor group will be the Pontchartrain, at three-quarters of a mile, to be run on Saturday, July 19. Among the forty-four nominations to this affair are such well-known sprinters as Coy, Prince Ahmed, Garden of Allah, Elifle Brigade, Tankard, Stentor, Rye Straw, Bettie Suc, Helen Barbee, Hamilton, Flammarion, Honey Bee and Orowoc.

The Detroit Stake for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs will be ran on Monday, July 21. While the entry list to this fixture is not so extensive as that for the Edenwold many of the best youngsters coming to the track are eligible for it. The last stake of the first Windsor meeting to be decided will be the D. & C. run on Wednesday, July 23. There are fifty-eight named for this affair at the popular distance of a mile. Bell Horse, Knight's Differ, Melton Street, Chuckles, Spellbound, Cliff Edge, Blackford, Barnegat, High Private, and Grosvenor, are some of the familiar names seen in the list.

Racing at Windsor this season will start at 2:30. Detroit time, thus bringing the closing race each day at about 4:50 o'clock. The most notable improvement in connection with this year's sport is the completion of the asphalt road from the ferry to the track gates. This roadway will be heartily appreciated by the motorists who visit the track from the Detroit side.

BUTTE FAVORITES IN ECLIPSE.

Butte, Mont., July 5.—Sir Fretful was returned winner of today's feature race here, a handicap at one mile, which atracted a small but select field. He scored a lucky victory, however, as had Bezanson made his move a bit earlier. Cantem doubtlessly would have won. Form students had a hard day of it, as one solitarly favorite succeeded in winning.

CARLTON G. REGAINS FORM

MALONE SPRINTER IS SUCCESSFUL IN OVER-NIGHT HANDICAP AT FORT ERIE

Takes Lead at the Start and Is Never Headed-Two Favorites Numbered Among the Day's Winners.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 5.—Interesting contests marked the racing at Fort Erie this afternoon. Well matched fields went to the post in a majority of the races and in most of them the winners were forced to stand hard drives to score. It was a day of upsets for form students, the results showing but two winning favorites, David Craig at 1 to 2 in the opening dash and The Widow Moon, an even money favorite in the fifth.

Carlton G. furnished the surprise of the day when he beat some shifty sprinters in the six-furlongs when he beat some shifty sprinters in the six-furlongs handicap. Carlton G. was ridden by W. Dunn, led from the start and was never headed. Leochares was the runner up all the way, while Calgary was never able to get near the leaders at any stage. The three-year-olds were asked to concede a lot of weight to the winner and they proved unequal to the task.

Jockey Loftus, who arrived from Latonia vesterweight to the winner and they proved unequal to the task.

Jockey Loftus, who arrived from Latonia yesterday, made his first appearance at the meeting on Havrock in the second race. He gave that old horse a splendid ride and landed him the winner in a driving finish.

The Widow Moon won her first race in Canada when she beat Crisco a couple of lengths. The filly was never headed and at one time led her opposition by half a dozen lengths.

The closest finish of the afternoon came with the running of the sixth race, which went to McCreary. The latter fought it out all through the homestretch with Clinton and just did score by a head.

The attendance was again large, although not equal to that of the opening day. Forty-six layers were in line.

John Powers, former trainer of Jack Atkin and later for F. 3. Pons, was an arrival from New York. He is here in search of some horses and will probably pick up a couple during the meeting.

Al Rohrback, general manager of the Connaught Park Jockey Club, was also a visitor. Mr. Rohrback reports that 175 men are at work on the infield at Connaught Park and that the steeplechase course will be ready for schooling not later than August 10. A great many owners who remained away from the Ottawa track this spring have reserved stalls for the fall meeting there.

YOUNG RACERS AT BOSQUE BONITA.

Lexington, Ky., July 5.—John H. Morris, who for so many years trained the horses of George J. Long and others, but who a half dozen or more summers ago took up breeding exclusively, has nine yearlings and six sucklings at his Bosque Bonila Farm in Woodford County. On the whole they make a decidedly representative collection of young thoroughbreds, but the star of the lost is the chestnut coil by Goldcrest out of the good producing mare Many Agnes (dam of Louise S., Floss S., Simplicity, etc.), by Fowhattan. This is a handsome, upstanding racy-looking colt and is the property of Mrs. Joseph Neal, of Louisville, daughter of the late John Welch, of Spring Station.

Three attractive yearlings by Knight of the Thistle are the property of R. H. McCarter Potter, owner of the Pequest Stud. New Jersey. They are a brown colt out of Fable (dam of Rainland), bay filly out of Tantalize (dam of Thomas Calhoun), and brown filly out of Mary Edna, by St. Julien.

The other five yearlings are owned by Mr. Morris, The bay colt by Goldcrest out of Evelyn J. (dam of Arany), is a handsome horse. The chestinut colt by Goldcrest, dam Result, a daughter of Compute and Adelaide Prince, a winner and half sister to the great mare. Cap and Bells, is much admired. The others are a chestnut filly by Goldcrest, out of Tardy (dam of Shirley Rossmore, Dilatory and Miss Charcot), brown or black filly by Charcot, dam Elleridie (dam of Right and True), and bay filly by Charcot, dam Pretty Betty, by Goldcrest.

The suklings owned by Mr. Morris are five in number and they are all colts, four being by Knight of the Thistle, out of Affect (dam of Bewan Tumbo), Handzarta. Result and Tardy, respectively, and the other by Samson out of Mary Morris. The colt out of Tardy is a chestnut and Affect's is a brown. The others are bays. The other suckling on the farm is a bay colt by Samson, dam Flower, and he is the property of Charles Littlefield, of New York. It is quite unsual to find 100 per cent. colts in any crop of a half dozen or more foals.

Mezohegyes, Hungary, July 5.—As the guests of the Hungarian Government, members of the Ameri-can Commission on Agriculture Co-operation, were shown over the Government breeding farm here

this week,

Horse breeding is one of the important industries of Hungary. The most noticeable characteristic of an Hungarian city to the stranger is the appearance of the horses on the streets. Even the cabs are two-horse vehicles and the horses would do credit to many a private turnout in the United States. Militarism is back of the horse breeding industry, and the Hungarians have done precisely what Major General Leonard Wood would like to see done for the American army.

The Government farm of Mezohegyes is about 35,000 acres. Nearly all of the land is given over to forage crops or pasture. The growth of forage is particularly heavy and its quality high. There are altogether 2,100 horses on the farm and this is but one of six such establishments in Hungary. The purpose of the institution is to keep up the quality of the horses bred, and to improve the cattle, sheep, and farm stock of the entire country. The exhibition was impressive, more as an effort upon an enormous scale to secure practical results in cattle and horse breeding, than as a show farm of fancy stock.

The horses are bred for cavalry use and to secure good agricultural breed. The stallions are sent out to government establishments over the country and are at the command of the farmers. The most important stallions at the Mezohegyes farm are the English half-bred and the Anglo-Norman, and strong bone structure, making them admirably suited for agricultural use.

Chestnut filly, by The Picket—Little Em (dam of O Em) by Goldcrest.

Mr. Hancock has a great fancy for the progeny of Celt, which horse he had at Ellerslie for two seasons. Nearly all of the yearlings that he will send to market this year, probably at Saratoga, 'are by Celt. He was not able to make an arrangement for a third year's lease on the son of Commando and Maid of Erin, so he—mated all of the Ellerslie mares, with the exception of five, to Heno and Glorifier last spring. Three of the five—Please, Follie Levy and Sumptuous—were sent to Celt's court at Kingston Farm. Meddling Mary went to Waterboy at Elmendorf and Little Em to Ballot at Hamburg Place. These five mares are still in Kentucky, on a farm near Paris. They will probably be shipped to Virginia next month. Mr. Hancock says his friend, Sam Ross, the Washington hardware merchant who owned and raced Graziallo and Dr. Duemer, has at Ellerslie a fine chestnut colt by Celt—Lady Isabel, and that John H. Shreve, of Baltimore, has a good looking filly by Glorifier—Puritan Girl, by Yankee. Both are foals of this year.

the score by his sons in the Derby, Desmond had the 5,000 guineas colt. Stornoway, winning the Great Surrey Foal Stakes for him—so that one way or another the Fort Union champion had a great week.

Aboyeur in winning at 100 to 1, followed the example of Jeddah, but the case of the two horses was not on all fours, for Jeddah won comfortably, while Aboyeur, of course, received the prize only on the disqualification from first place of Craganour. As well as being frish-bred in every sense of the word, Aboyeur was Irish-trained, for Tom Lewis, who has charge of the Netheravon stable, is a native of Co. Down, in the province of Ulster, and he trained for long enough at the Curragh before removing to England. At the Curragh he was righthand man to Mr. T. Gisborne Gordon when that gentleman resided at Brownstown, before moving to his present place at Knocknagarm. Lewis has been mentioned as having won the Cambridgeshire twice with Christmas Daisy; so he did, but most writers have overlooked the fact that when he led back the son of Vitez after the colt's second success that was Lewis's third score in the big handicap. That race he won for the first time as far back as 1891 with Comedy, who was owned by Mr. W. Fulton.

It has received due publicity that Aboyeur was 9 ParlorBoy, FortJohnson, LaVeita Lewis's third score in the big mandicap. Linaterace he won for the first time as far back as 1891 with Comedy, who was owned by Mr. W. Fulton.

It has received due publicity that Aboyeur was bred by Mr. T. K. Laidlaw (who has several horses in training at the Curragh with Michael Dawson) in Co. Dublin, and that Mr. James Daly bought the colt from him. Mr. Peard in turn secured the future Derby winner from the Master of the Hartstown Stud, Mr. Peard purchasing the son of Desmond on behalf of Mr. Cunliffe.

There is not a sounder Judge of a racer or 'chaser than Mr. Peard. Twice only, I believe, has he been requested to purchase a likely 'classic' winner for his friends, and on each occasion the horses he chose fulfilled the requirements of those on whose behalf the purchase was made. When Mr. Pilkington was anxious to become the owner of a classic winner he consulted Mr. Peard on the matter, and told the latter gentleman to procure for him the best yearling in Ireland. Where there is always a big selection of high-class youngsters that was something of a tall order, but eventually Mr. Peard "found" at Tully, Co. Kildare, a coit by Persimmon out of Lady Lightfoot, by Isinglass, her dam, Glare (dam of Flair, Lesbia, Vivid, Prince Steel, etc), by Ayrshire. That breeding looked all right, and personally the yearling seemed to "fill the bill." The purchase was made for 2,000 sovereigns (or gnineas, I forget which), and the yearling by Persimmon passed into the ownership of Mr. T. Pilkington.

The youngster was afterwards given the name of Prince Palatine, and brimmor all won races.—Dublin Letter to London Sportsman.

Surface New York, July 5.—Swift judgment has followed the in and out running of the Canadian steeple-chaser Backthorn at Belmont Park, with the result that William Hogan, the trainer of the horse, has been ruled off the turf by the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Brunt Association, which exercises jurisdiction over the jumpers. Hogan and jockey Kelleher were suspended at Belmont Park because of the startling improvement shown by Buckthorn in a steeplechase on June 21. Hogan was the chief sufferer, as the stewards merely approved of the suspension of Kelleher and ordered it continued up to and including today. Buckthorn is owned by Bartlett McLennan, a Canadian.

On June 13, Buckthorn, showing excellent speed, and never far from the pace, finished a good third to L. Navarre and Sir Cleges, Just four days later Buckthorn could hardly raise a gallop and, after being outrun all the way, pulled up last, being beaten by Malaga, Shannon River and Tom Cat. After another rest of four days Buckthorn was sent to the post a wild horse and forcing all the pace was just nipped out in the last stride by Shannon River.

When Hogan was called before the stewards after this running he admitted that he had tried to improve Buckthorn's gait by the use of whisky and coffee as a stimulant, but he did not consider that he had violated any rules in doing so. The stewards of the meeting held a different idea and his license was suspended and the case referred to the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. That body has found Hogan guilty and has banished him from the urf.

found Hogan guilty and has banished him from the turf.

At this same meeting the stewards certificates as gentlemen riders were issued to Norman Prince, H. Morris Adams and Francis W. Sargent, Jr. The application of Percy Blake Faskally was granted subject to the approval of the Hunts Committee.

James Johnston was licensed as a trainer and the following jockeys were granted licenses: Lester Franklin, T. Howard, E. Krause, William H. Taylor and B. Haynes.

Henry J. Morris was appointed steward to represent the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association at the meeting of the Saratoga Association, which is to continue through the month of August.

Joseph E. Davis was also appointed to represent S. S. Howland during the latter's absence abroad.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

H. D. Brown, while at Hamilton a few days ago, said that he would conduct a meeting at Laurel next October without the Jockey Club's sanction.

For the second meeting of the King Edward Park Jockey Club at Montreal, July 12-19, the management announces that there will be no purse of a value less than $400, while there will also be a free handicap run every day with a value of $500. Mr. August Belmont, the owner of Tracery, on the advice of Mr. J. T. Wood, only last week in-sured the horse for $150,000. Fortunately the son of Rock Sand was not seriously hurt when brought down in the Gold Cup.—London Sporting Life. According to report, H. P. Whitney is considering the sending of Whisk Broom II back to Eugland for another campaign. The superb form that the horse has shown in this country is said to have filled Mr. Whitney with a desire to have another try for some of the important English events.
